

Home and Garden Television

CAMERA TRAINEE/CINEMATOGRAPHER REQUIRED

About Home and Garden Television:

Home and Garden Television is a start-up company with a team size of three. Home and Garden Television intends to be an online lifestyle television that helps people make informed decision while buying or remodeling their homes. It would broadcast a variety of shows relating to home buying, selling, home and garden improvement, maintenance, renovation, craft and remodeling.

Job Description:

The job requires the candidate to have good knowledge in creating digital videos and handling of various kinds of cameras. The candidate is also required to have a sound knowledge of lightings and sound. The job responsibility would include the person to travel extensively to shoot on various locations (both indoor and outdoor).

Compensation:

The candidate would start as a intern for the first three months and would be taken as a full time employee in completion of internship. The following would be the salary structure:

During Internship (First 3 Months) – Rs 5,000 + Travel expense

Full time Employment (After 3 Months) – Rs 10,000 + Travel Expense

Review Period and Increment: A review shall be done every six months and the candidate can expect a salary hike of 10-25% on each review.

Interested candidates can email their resumes to vishal@hgtv.in or call Vishal at 9811909008.